Spring 2009 Classes

The Essentials of Beading*

Join MAG jewelry artisans, for an afternoon of essential information on basic beading. All you need to know on bead lingo, tools, findings, bead websites and bead stores. We will share our 30+ years of experience with you as you create your own wearable work of art!

Instructors: Lynn Charls, Anna Marie Spartz-Schweim, Melisa Ferris

Date: April 5, 2009 (Sunday) 2PM

Cost: $15.00 plus the cost of beads. Supplies fee collected in class.

Precious Metal Clay (PMC)

You begin with a lump of clay. Mold it, emboss it, shape it, fire it and you have a unique piece of jewelry that is 99% silver. Anna Marie is a certified PMC instructor. She will show you the basics of working with PMC as you create a few treasures. Come, experience the magic of PMC. The only limitation is your imagination!

Instructor: Anna Marie Spartz-Schweim

Date: 3/22 (Sunday) Time: 11AM -4PM

Cost: $40.00 plus cost of supplies collected in class by the instructor

Papermaking

Have you ever wondered how paper is made? This class will introduce you to a papermaking process that uses a blender. Each student should be able to create 3 sheets of paper (more if time allows). The supply fee includes all your materials, but if you have some junk mail or inclusions (such as dried flowers, leaves, glitter, thread, yarn, etc.) that you would like to try, bring them along. Paper samples and finished projects using handmade paper will be available to spark your imagination.

Instructor: Shelley Matthiesen

Date: April 9 (Thursday) 6:30PM-9PM or April 11 (Saturday) 9AM-11:30 AM

Cost: $20.00 plus a $5.00 fee for supplies collected in class by the instructor.

Bonnet Making You must sign up for this class by March 17

A continuation of the Civil War Costuming begun in Spring 2008. These bonnets are period correct for the Civil War era and are based on actual patterns from that time period.
